

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Comments of the Press on the Booker Washington-Roosevelt Incident.

It is as futile now as it was fifty years ago to argue such a matter with the south. To point out that Mr. Washington is the intellectual superior of editors and politicians who call him a nigger—a more useful citizen, doing a greater work than they are capable even of comprehending—would only incite them to greater virulence of speech and prolong an unprofitable controversy. Enough to say that President Roosevelt has confirmed the good opinion of his character formed by right-thinking men whose preceptions are not obscured by prejudice.—Philadelphia North American.

God set up the barrier between the races. No president of this or any other country can break it down.

A dinner given by one man to another in the home and privacy of his family means that the guest or his son may woo and win the hosts daughter. When the one man is a white man and the other black it means that there is but one more step to miscegenation—a sinful and wilful breaking of God's plain law.

The news item which came from Washington and was printed in yesterday's Telegraph told a sad story for our country. We shall hear more of this.—Macon Telegraph.

Present southern political conditions under which the community in the south divides over national issues on the color line, is the stock in trade of extreme southern democrats in politics. They live by it. By it they get office and control their party. Raising the cry of "nigger" this is their natural resort the instant their political supremacy is threatened. They raise the cry now, not because they object to seeing a negro seated at the table of the president of the United States, but because they object to seeing the chief executive making appointments which will destroy the sectional and with it the color line in politics, for by this line they get great gains. These men are drowning and they are yelling for the usual rope. President Roosevelt's critics are wasting breath and spilling ink. There is an obstinate man in the White House. The cry of "nigger" will never prevent him from continuing to appoint to any office in the southern states the best men, under whatever color or politics, who can be found under current conditions or recognizing in the hospitalities of the White House the best type of American manhood, under whatever color of skin it can be found.—Philadelphia Press.

We do not like Mr. Roosevelt's negroophilia at all, and are sorry to see him seeking opportunities to indulge in it. He is reported to have rejoiced that negro children were going to school with his children at Oyster Bay. But then, it may be said, too, that he has more reasons than the average white man to be fond of negroes, since it was a negro regiment that saved the Rough Riders from decimation at San Juan hill. And but for San Juan hill, it is quite

Tot Causes Night Alarm.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittendon, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from croup and whooping cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." unlikely that Mr. Roosevelt would be president today.—Richmond Dispatch.

An American named Washington, one of the most learned, most eloquent, most brilliant men of the day—the president of a college—is asked to dinner by President Roosevelt. And because the pigment of the skin is some shades darker than that of others a large part of the United States is convulsed with shame and rage. This man is a negro. Therefore in eating with him the president is charged with having insulted the south. This man may cast a ballot, but he may not break bread. He may represent us in the senate chamber, but he may not "join us at the breakfast table." He may educate us, but not eat with us; preach our gospel, but not be our guest; enlighten our minds, but not entertain our bodies; die for us, but not dine with us. Truly liberty must smile at such broad-minded logic, such enlightened tolerance. Or should she weep?—New York World.

Nothing could have happened which would prove more conclusively to the American citizen the absolute incompetency and unworthiness of Theodore Roosevelt to occupy the position which he has won by chance than the circumstance in question. It justifies every harsh criticism which has been made of him and forces this newspaper to retract every complimentary thing which it has uttered in his behalf. He is after all not a statesman, but a mere swashbuckler and something else, with which we hesitate to offend the ears of our readers. Abraham Lincoln, the greatest president and perhaps the greatest man the United States has ever known, was in favor of the freedom of the negro, but Abraham Lincoln, was too big and broad a man ever to have suggested by any act of his so awful a thing as the amalgamation of the races, and this is what this man Roosevelt has done.

The president has rudely shattered any expectations that may have arisen from his announced intention to make the republican party in the south respectable. He has closed the door to the accessions of southern white men to the republican ranks. There are many respectable republicans in the south, but none of them would think of inviting a black man to his table.—Memphis Scimitar.

All this has happened in good time. It comes when there was about to be a mad rush of thoughtless democrats into the republican party, pell, mell, regardless. It pulls the blinds off, makes clear the policies of the republican party and no man in the south now need be deceived as to where he will land when he starts into the republican party. He knows in advance what republicanism means. He ought to have known before. But there is no need for him to be deceived. If he is willing to accept it now, with his eyes open, it is well enough. He can go and be damned.—Montgomery Journal.
